“What Now?”

Acts 4:32-35 (click for Scripture)

John 20:19-31 (click for Scripture)

What do we do with a resurrected Jesus? We don't seem to really know. For many of us Easter feels a lot more like the end of something than the beginning. The end of Lent, the end of Holy Week, the end of winter. In our Scripture passages for this week we get glimpses of the post Easter life. Caring for each other like the group of believers in Acts. Gathering in hopeful anticipation like the disciples in John. Also in

John we learn through Thomas that doubt is a likely reaction when all of the hoopla has died down a week after Easter.

What does Jesus have to say about our hearts and minds a week after Easter? Should we sell all we own and hold it in common? Should we chase away all doubts, demand proof, fall to our knees?

Join us for worship this Sunday at 10:30 AM as we consider the first reactions to the first Easter and what we can learn from them.

Blessings and Peace,

Danny

A Note From Peggy

Dear choir and church family

It was my joy to be in your midst the week before and throughout Holy Week and Easter. You worked so well to prepare the music for all the services which had been planned for this special season. I deeply appreciate your kind response to my helping you so that together we could accomplish the work before us. God never gives us a task to do without equipping us to do it. We were equipped with willing singers who did so much in such a short time.

Know that I love you and am grateful for your faithfulness to music at FPC Lincolnton. I wish you and your new leader well as he comes to work with you. You have my prayers always.

God bless and keep you, Danny and my church family, as you continue in the mission and vision you have for our church.

Pastor's Bible Study – Looking Toward Sunday

Join me downstairs in the Choir Room on Tuesdays at 12:30 pm for a study of the Scripture texts for the following Sunday. On Tuesday April 3rd we will be looking at Acts 3:12-19 and Luke 24:36-48. Feel free to bring lunch or just come as you are for an hour of fellowship and study. - Danny
