"I Will Not Leave You Orphaned"

John 14:15-21 (click for Scripture)

This week's Gospel passage from the lectionary includes the provocative promise from Jesus; "I will not leave you orphaned." It's one of those weeks where one of the assigned texts aligns perfectly with the life of the church. In our baptism vows the congregation essentially makes the same promise to children and their parents. The question posed is "Do you, as members of the church of Jesus Christ, promise to guide and nurture these children by word and deed, with love and prayer, encouraging them to know and follow Christ and to be faithful members of his church?" The response is "We do." And with that we commit to not leaving our children spiritually orphaned.

Join us this Sunday at 10:30 AM as we explore these verses from the Gospel of John while recognizing and lifting up Emily and Amanda as they begin their next journey in life. Special refreshments will follow the service.

Commit To God's Work in the World

Pledge request letters were to be sent out this week but have been delayed until early next week. The following is reprinted from last weeks Pewsletter Weekly.

Ministry comes in many shapes and sizes and is not limited to ordained clergy, church officers or even members. All who declare Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior are, by default, engaged in Christian ministry.

Some of us serve in ministries that are more obvious than others but we are wise to acknowledge even some of our most mundane tasks as ministry. Do you serve in the soup kitchen or deliver LINC

Meals? That's ministry. Do you take care of a loved one who is ill or in-firmed? That's a ministry. Do you run a household, work to support your family or engage in political community action? Those too can be ministries!

Section G-1.0304 of The Book of Order is titled The Ministry of Members and lists activities that such involvement includes. One that stands out is "living responsibly in the personal, family, vocational, political, cultural and social relationships of life."

This congregation is certainly rich in ministers and ministry.

Another entry in that Book of Order list is this: "supporting the ministry of the church through the giving of money, time and talents." Next week you will receive a letter from me with a pledge card. Please prayerfully consider your financial commitment to the life of First Presbyterian Church and its' role in Christian service to the community. This is a very generous congregation and you have sustained this particular church through some tough times. Thank you for that and for your continued generosity as we work toward an identifiable budget that is sustainable and in keeping with the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Blessings and peace,

Danny
