Répondez s'il vous plaît, RSVP, Regrets Only, Save the Date. Just some of the variations on the time honored expectation that if someone is invited somewhere or asked to do something, they will respond to the request one way or the other. In the Gospel text Jesus tells of two sons, neither of which does what he says he will. Is it better to decline an invitation but show up anyway or to accept the invitation and then not show up? I guess that depends on whether or not you are the guest or the host. How are we responding to God? Does God expect a response from everyone or is he okay with Regrets Only? Do we sit in judgment based on our perceptions of the response of others?

Join us for worship this Sunday at 10:30 AM as we consider our RSVP to God's call on our lives.

Blessings and Peace,

Danny

Pastor's Bible Study – Looking Toward Sunday

Join me in the Apple Classroom on Tuesdays at 12:30 pm for a study of the Scripture texts for the following Sunday. This Tuesday, October 3, we will look at Isaiah 5:1-7 and Matthew 21:33-46. Feel free to bring lunch or just come as you are for an hour of fellowship and study. - Danny

The Session has called a short Congregational Meeting at the beginning of worship for this, Sunday October 1st, for the purpose of electing an Officer Nominating Committee.

John Lineberger

It is with both sadness and joy that we must say good-bye to our organist and Director of Music, John Lineberger. John's last Sunday with us will be October 15.

We have been blessed by John's ministry of music for the past 2 years and he will be impossible to replace. At the same time we rejoice with him as he takes important steps in his life and career. John has accepted a call to serve in the same capacity at Trinity Lutheran Church in Vale, NC.

He is also leaving his 2nd shift hospital lab job and joining John Dower at Lincoln Pipe Organ where he will assist in servicing church organs up and down the East coast. This will feed John's passion for the organ while also helping him get a decent night's sleep ;)

Thank you John for your service to First Presbyterian Church and Godspeed as you answer God's call.
